THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT 8, 1864

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L WOODS, of Wasco County,
H N GEORGE, of Linn County,
J F GAZLEY, of Douglas County.

McClellan Complimented.

The Oregon Arena has received the intelligence of McClellan's nomination at Chicago, and indulges in a bit of satire upon the subject which is perfectly irresistible The course of that paper during its brief existence has been such that it could not well do otherwise than it has done for little Mac, and it will no doubt be some weeks before it can plant him squarely upon the rotten lumber of the Chicago platform and swear he is an honest traitor Hear how gingerly the Arena makes its first essay at McClellan bunkum

To no two living men can we more proudly and earnestly give our support than to George B. McClellan and George H Pendleton It has been said of the former that he is a war man In the sense of being for this war, this is in no wise true We believe he regards this war as one for abolition—a war illegal in itself and wholly subversive of law and order in its results. General McClellan combines, in an eminent degree, those attributes so rare in these times, that fit men for high office He is a scholar, a gentleman, a statesman a patriot and a hero, and, in all these respects, the opposite of that clown and buffoon, A Lincoln The immemorial usage of our party makes it the duty of all Democrats to rally to his support

If the Arena in the above quotation does not assert its belief that McClellan is a contemptible liar and a false-hearted puppy, we fail to see the point of its assertions. We ask the readers' attention to the following quotation of McClellan's own language, and they will see how much sincerity there must be in the Arena's remarks

"Rebellion against a government like ours, which contains the means of self adjustment and a pacific remedy for evils, should never be confounded with a revolution against despotic power which refuses a redress of wrongs Such a rebellion cannot be justified upon ethical grounds, and the only alternatives for our choice are its suppression or the destruction of our nationality At such a time as this, and in such a struggle, political partisanship should be merged in a true and brave patriotism, which thinks only of the good of the whole country It was in this cause and with these motives that so many of our comrades have given their lives, and to this we are all personally pledged in all honor and fidelity Shall such devotion as that of our dead comrades be of no avail? Shall it be said in after ages that we lacked the vigor to complete the work thus begun? That after all these noble lives freely given we hesitated and failed to keep straight on until our land was saved? Forbid it, heaven! and give us firmer, truer hearts than that "—McClellan's West Point Oration"

If McClellan accepts the nomination, with the platform concocted before the Convention met by Clay, Saunders et al from the land o' cotton and murder, what will he do with his "personal pledge in all honor and fidelity to the cause of suppressing this unholy rebellion"?

RECONCILIATION —The Oregon Arena says, since C C Clay and the other traitors have issued their Chicago mandate to the Democratic party, "The hero of Antietam, is now to be the hero of a campaign grander by far and more glorious in its results than any inaugurated since the dark days of '76" We are glad to witness such a summersault in the convictions and sentiments of the Northern traitors as is manifested in the loving title bestowed upon the man of arbitrary arrests—the discoverer of the potency of drafts But what does the Arena mean by "the dark days of '76"? Does it mean that the days which saw our country free were dark days, or was it the signing of the Declaration of Independence that made those "days of '76" especially dark to the traitors? Is the campaign now to be inaugurated "grander by far and more glorious in its results" because if successful our glorious institutions and government will be destroyed, millions of freemen manacled, and anarchy, civil war or serfdom will mark the bounds of our loyal heritage? This is no doubt the vain hope of treason But, thank God, the hope will never be realized If the "hero of Antietam" accepts such an accursed nomination, he will prove himself a double-dyed traitor, not only shutting the mouths of all copperhead growlers at his removal from a betrayed command, but driving from the Democratic ranks every man in whose breast remains a latent spark of self-respect

EXTRAORDINARY STATEMENT —We extract from the speech of Hon John R McBride, just published in the Sacramento Union. He says "When we ascertain that from Portland, Oregon, which is the seaport city of the State and the entrepot of its trade with San Francisco, the Express charges to the Mint are five per cent., insurance two and a half per cent more, and the loss of time from one to three months, we can have some idea of the amount of shave which the people have to and do submit to" That our Representative elect may not make such wild statements, that may cause people to doubt his capacity or the truth of his statements, we will inform him that the Express charges on gold bullion is just three-fourths (¾) of one per cent., and insurance one and one quarter of one per cent., instead of seven and one half per cent. This statement reminds us of Joe Lane's statement as to the population of Oregon, when advocating its admission into the Union

DEATH OF JUDGE LAUGHLIN —We are sorry to announce the demise of Judge Laughlin, which took place at the Dalles on Tuesday evening He was one of the pioneer settlers of Eastern Oregon, lived respected and died regretted

ASTORIA ITEMS —Hams of elk are selling in Astoria at 6 cents per pound Mr Luke Taylor killed three fine elk on Young's river last Wednesday

A company has been formed at Astoria for the manufacture of cement from a rock found on the north side of the Columbia river

GRAND SALUTE —One hundred guns were fired at high twelve yesterday by the troops at Fort Vancouver, we presume, in honor of the recent important Federal victories

PUGET SOUND ITEMS —The Pacific Tribune says the Hon F M Sargent was removed from the Post Office for doing his duty and proves it by quoting from the Post Master's Washington instruction

Chief Justice Hewitt granted a restraining order prohibiting Collector Gunn and his Deputy from issuing permits to the British steamer Alexandra to navigate the waters of Puget Sound and its tributaries, for the purpose of traffic and conveying passengers between American and foreign ports The injunction was temporary, and the collector has since received orders from Washington whereby foreign vessels will not hereafter be allowed to clear for more than one port on Puget Sound

Mr Keach, the contractor has given up carrying the mail on Puget Sound on account of the depreciation of legal tender currency J D Laman and Capt Berry are now carrying it under a temporary arrangement

The Seattle Gazette favors the construction of a wagon road over the Cascade Mountains

We copy the following from that lively sheet

A GOOD TEST —The names of just fifteen negro bitten Copperheads have been scratched from our subscription list, and those of thirty three new Union patrons have supplied their place since the commencement of the new quarter This is a fair way, so far as it goes, of testing the loyalty of certain people, since the strong Unionism of the paper is the only cause assigned for the indignation of the one and the favor of the other On the list of Copperhead withdrawals which we preserve for future reference, we find several would be high toned business men and town proprietors, while our friends are of the poor and patriotic class, having little more than that general interest in the community which belongs to every good citizen Make a note of this

"FIRING THE SOUTHERN HEART"—The Atlanta Intelligencer says

Butler, the Beast—Grant the Butcher—Sherman, the Brute—what a precious trio—what heaven defying, monstrous specimens of humanity, these three Federal generals constitute! The first base and corrupt and brutal as he is recognized to be in the civilized world, and the third is not far behind the second in his violation of the rules of civilized warfare and the horrid sacrifices of human life—even of the lives of his own men The Beast directs his tyranny and brutality mostly against individuals, and mostly against what he may well term his enemies the Butcher has no regard for human life, and slaughters by wholesale his drunken soldiery—made drunk that they may unconsciously be driven to the slaughter, without even a care resting upon his conscience at the blood he causes to be shed, or the decency to care for the dead carcases, over the putrid bodies of which he forces other legions to tread to be offered as similar sacrifices, while the Brute upon the hills and valleys of Cherokee Georgia, in his 'On to Atlanta' strives to imitate the Butcher

The three monsters who lead the Yankee forces, insatiate with human blood, have had their day and time, but neither the bestiality of the one the butchery of the other, nor the brutality of the third can save them and the men they lead from the heaven inflicted punishment due to the enormous crimes which under the color of war, they have been committing Amid it all, our brave armies and their gallant leaders stand firm They have no fears of the result—why should we, or those of us at home? Let it be Beast, Butcher or Brute who leads the robbers on to Atlanta or to Richmond the world will see that those who stand ready to defend either position will do so bravely, and with success Oceans of blood may flow but the victory will be ours

FROM PERU —El Comercio, of Lima, of July 28th, contains the following

Peru is preparing for war to repel Spanish aggressions, and the Government expects to be not only able to defend itself, but to attack and drive out the invaders The people believe that war is inevitable, and that it will be an obstinate struggle, so every preparation is being made The municipalities of all the provinces have commenced to raise subscriptions for the "Society of Maritime Defense." The people do not believe that they will stand long in danger, as the adjoining republics will make common cause with them A new treaty of alliance, offensive and defensive, has been signed with Columbia. The Congress of Chile has also taken action in relation to the affairs of Peru, and have passed resolutions discountenancing the occupation of the Chinchas by Pinzon, and refusing to permit supplies being furnished to his squadron in the future; the coal taken by the General D'Hautpoul having cleared for Acapulco, it was impossible to stop that vessel Pinzon's operations had produced a great excitement, and all the papers condemn the seizure of the Chinchas as a piratical act. Public manifestations in favor of Peru had been numerous and enthusiastic.

The relations between Bolivia and Chile were in a deplorable state, and the questions at issue were to be submitted to the arbitration of Peru.

THE REBEL ARMY —The Boston Journal estimates the fighting rebels at 195,000, divided as follows

West of the Mississippi, at least	25,000
With Johnson	45,000
With Forrest and others	10,000
At Mobile and in the Carolinas	20 000
With Lee and on raids into Maryland	85,000
Total	185 000

The editor also remarks "If our Government will but keep our armies up to their present strength, and keep down, as they can (below two hundred) the price of gold, the result is certain. For the last two months we have disposed of our foes at the rate of nearly fifty thousand per month Should we continue to move with the same degree of despatch, the present campaign of 1864 at its close, would leave few foes in arms or able to renew the contest"

SIX REASONS —Somebody has given the following six reasons in support of recruiting negroes in the insurgent States

1 It will fill up the ranks of our armies at less cost than they can be filled in any other way
2 It will weaken the force of the enemy in still greater proportion than it strengthens our own
3 It will relieve the North from the drain of men while it will give employment and sustenance to a large class at the South who will thus be brought most effectually on to the Union side.
4 It will give resources to the refugees who would otherwise, in greater numbers require to be aided by humane efforts
5 It will open a way for the negroes from slavery and dependence to liberty and manhood
6 It will be a practical measure of emancipation

A MATTER OF PRINCIPLE – The Alta has the following

A Copperhead and a Union man came together at Sonora the other day and his snakeship was found laid on face uppermost, a few minutes after The Union man was questioned as to the cause of the row, and he explained it as follows "Why, you see, he called me a d—d miscegenationator I aint no great on dictionary terms, and don't know exactly what he meant, but I don't take no lip from his kind, no how, so I just busted him on general principles."

A FATAL RAMROD —An army letter from Petersburg says that during the fight on June 24th, one of our boys, either becoming short of ammunition or in a hurry of the engagement, fired the ramrod of his gun out of his musket. On the subsequent capture of the works two rebels were found dead and completely transfixed with the iron shaft

PERSONAL —We last evening had a call from the Hon J. R McBride, M C, who is on his way to the State Capital He appears in excellent health, and able to undergo the fatigues of another session comfortably

The town of Prescott has been designated as the Seat of Government for Arizona and a temporary public building of hewn logs is being erected for the accommodation of the Legislature of the Territory

General orders have been given for a grand campaign against the Apaches in Arizona the expedition to consist of about 400 infantry and cavalry under command of Colonel Rigg

JAMES F DONLIN, in San Francisco, has been indicted for misdemeanor, for shouting for Jeff. Davis and expressing himself favorable to the Southern Confederacy

Returns from Arizona indicate the election of C D Poston, Union Delegate to Congress, by nearly 400 majority

The steamer Costa Rica from Aspinwall has arrived with California treasure for the War Department

WASHINGTON, Sept 4 —Sherman's official report of the capture of Atlanta has been received dated 26 miles south of Atlanta yesterday morning It gives the details of maneuvres He first attacked Jonesboro his army carrying the works capturing 10 guns 1 000 prisoners and driving the rebels to Lovejoy's station Hood finding communications cut off blew up the magazines and left Atlanta in the night Slocum's corps (20th) took possession of the city So Atlanta is ours and fairly won Since the 5th of May we have been in one constant battle or skirmish and need rest Our loss will not exceed 12,000 We have over 3 000 rebel dead and wounded, and 15,000 prisoners

(Signed) SHERMAN

Later dispatches from Slocum, dated Atlanta on the night of the 3d, say that the enemy destroyed seven locomotives and 83 cars loaded with ammunition, small arms and stores They left 11 pieces of artillery, mostly uninjured and a large number of small arms

Deserters are constantly arriving inside our lines

(Signed) STANTON

BALTIMORE Sept 5 —A special to the American dated near Berryville the 4th says

Crook's command, with the 19th and 6th corps reached Berryville at noon yesterday and about 4 o'clock heavy skirmishing commenced The 36th Ohio and 5th Virginia charged the rebels and drove them out of the trenches A desperate struggle now took place The rebels determined to regain their trenches and massed two divisions and hurled them with their accustomed ferocity against our forces who were supported by Daniel's and Thornburg's divisions The enemy were handsomely repulsed The conflict lasted till after sundown The army was engaged all night digging intrenchments and throwing up breastworks and now we occupy a strong position We captured 10 prisoners and three stands of colors Our loss is about 300 killed and wounded The enemy's is greater

WASHINGTON, Sept 5 —The destruction of the store frigate Brandywine resulted in the loss to the Government of over one million of dollars worth of naval stores and clothing

The Richmond papers say In the battle near Atlanta the Union troops were at first repulsed but finally drove the rebels back with heavy loss including Generals Anderson Patton and Hardee

Everything was quiet in front of Petersburg up to yesterday morning The rebels are erecting strong works opposite our position on the left

The work on Dutch Gap Canal approaches completion

NEW YORK, Sept 5 —The steamer Cahawba from New Orleans arrived on the 28th Among the passengers are Gen Bailey and staff Gen Herron had returned from an expedition to Clinwood 17 miles from Baton Rouge, where he had a fight with the enemy, inflicting a loss of 150 men, we destroying a large amount of stores Our loss was about 30 killed and wounded and about 100 prisoners recently exchanged near Baton Rouge

Gen Granger has issued an order in acknowledgment to the army for the part taken in the reduction of Fort Morgan We did not lose a single man in the last attack on the fort The army worm was making sad havoc among the cotton near Baton Rouge

NEW YORK Sept 6 —The Herald's Bunker Hill correspondent dated the 4th says Crook was last night attacked but he repulsed the enemy taking 100 prisoners

The Herald's correspondent with Averill, dated the 4th, writes Yesterday the operations on Sheridan's right, in the direction of Winchester were eminently successful About 10 30, A M, Lomax's division of rebel cavalry was reinforced to five brigades and attacked us one mile north of Darkesville, on the Winchester pike The attack was made with gallantry but was gallantly repulsed, although we had only a portion of our command engaged The offensive party had three to our one in action We having for a short time having maintained the defensive in order to allow the enemy time to develope their strength, took the offensive and drove Lomax's whole division at a very rapid rate over the field, through the woods past the rifle pits, rudely constructed breastwork for a distance of nearly five miles At this point the enemy attempted to stand in the evening with artillery, using the whole cavalry force to prevent us crossing Mill Creek The engagement was of a short duration but unusually spirited We charged the enemy and would have taken his artillery had our force been able to cross the Creek in the manner intended The enemy partly escaped capture merely by accident Having come upon the enemy's main force we skirmished the rest of the day while preparing for other movements yesterday

The Herald's City Point correspondent on the 4th says Richmond papers affect to ridicule the idea of a single line of railroad being vital to their occupation of Petersburg and Richmond, but a general despondency shows itself in the same issue

A correspondent writing from the battle ground at Ream's Station several days after the withdrawal of our forces speaks sorrowfully of the thorough destruction of miles of railroad by Hancock's corps, and pronounces its repossession by the rebels as hopelessly impossible

The Tribune's special says Hunter has been relieved at his own request of the command of the Department of West Virginia It is believed that Crook will be assigned to the command

WASHINGTON, Sept 5 —There is no truth in the published report of an Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor Maximilian having arrived at Washington

Private dispatches [illegible] the 6th, 212a 212 [illegible]

THE SUFFERING TENNESSEANS —The Louisville Journal of a recent date says

A more sorrowful spectacle no one could not imagine than that presented by the destitute poor who have applied to our commissary here at Chattanooga since the order of Gen Sherman forbad the issue of rations to the destitute citizens within our lines Aged women are seen at Capt Cassen begging for bread but military necessity is an inexorable law and heart that pity is impotent to respond with the aid solicited At his office every day women marriageable girls, children cripples and needy of every age and both sexes may be seen here in rags and wretchedness to feed and return The mother who weeps at the door is not suffering from hunger It is not bread that will dry her tears It is food for the little ones at home that alone will make her happy Think of it To walk 15 20 30 or even 40 miles for a few pounds of provender to keep together body and soul How can the mother return to her hungered children who wait for bread If our breasts had windows I am sure that through these we could read a desire to keep which would fail

The army must have bread The unity of the States and the supremacy of the laws may rest upon this campaign The stake is too mighty to admit of any requires —to allow even the voice of offering women and children to hold us back If we feed the needy we may starve the soldier The soldier fights for all If he suffers he may fail and with that failure we are all poor indeed and again are sufferers If we suffer for a period and the right we enhance his chances for victory His success is national gain and national prosperity is individual Hot tears may scald the cheeks of mothers and hunger pinch thousands of needy ones and yet the need of the Union cause is worth all that sacrifice, even months of painful hunger

Gen was remarked to a deputation of Italians who asked for him indemnification for the loss of their crops in the Italian war Some are killed, some are maimed you are luckier, you have only lost some rice fields The Irish, it is said, lived on nettles and weeds in the time of Cromwell While my heart swells with pity for the poor I admit that I look upon their sufferings as a stern necessity that the General would gladly if he could avoid

A SPLENDID PASSAGE —The clipper ship Fair light Capt Bush which arrived yesterday from London made one of the fastest runs yet accomplished to this Island She was 127 days from pilot to pilot and only 122 days from the Lizard Light where she took her departure The clipper ship Silistria in 1862, if we remember rightly was reported to have made the run from Liverpool in 124 days, and the frigate Bird, subsequently, in 126 days, but they probably dated from land to land British Colonist

ONCE upon a time both a Saddler and a Blacksmith were required to work upon a Horse, but now the boots are done away with, and the Saddler is required no more And not long ago Missourian Shoeing was very prevalent in this city, but now it is done away with, because the best of judges pronounce it to be only fit for Cayuse Ponies, and not for American Horses
Having had great experience in the line of HORSE SHOEING, gentlemen favoring me with a trial can rely upon having their work executed in the best workmanlike manner and upon the most reasonable terms

SAFES!
A TRIAL TEST.
THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT WE purchased on the THIRD INSTANT, of Mr Tillman, the Agent in this city of Tilton & McFarland, one of their BEST Safes, with Inside STEEL VAULT, and WARRANTED by said Agent to be Fire and BURGLAR PROOF, after sale The outside door of said Safe is secured by their Six tumbler Key Lock The door of the vault is fastened by their Six tumbler Key Lock and a Five ring Combination Lock Mr W. Ensign opened the said Safe by picking the lock of the outside of the door in TEN MINUTES, and the door of the steel vault by making a key from measurements taken from the outside thereof, after said door was closed and locked, and by picking the combination lock (not using tools or vise) in five hours and fifty seven minutes being ONE HOUR AND THREE MINUTES WITHIN THE TIME HE WAS LIMITED TO
The trial was made WITH THE CONSENT of MR TILLMAN, who was APPRISED of the conditions thereof beforehand, and who, upon the above result being made known to him, positively offered to carry out his warrantee, by sending said safe and taking it off our hands
I CANNOT, and do not, after witnessing the above operations, CONSIDER SAID LOCKS BURGLAR PROOF

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with confidence
BOILS.
WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures REDINGTON & CO Agents 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco

CITIZENS MEETING —At a called meeting of the citizens of Portland to take steps for the removal of obstructions at or near the mouth of the Willamette river on motion of Mr Corbett Mayor Failing was called to the chair H C Leonard was appointed Secretary There was a good number of our citizens present, and much interest manifested by them The whole subject was pretty thoroughly canvassed and commented upon when a committee of five gentlemen were appointed whose duty it shall be to solicit subscriptions The committee consists of Capt A P Ankeny John Green, H W Corbett, C H Lewis D W Burnside who are to meet at Arrigoni's this morning at 10 o clock and proceed with the work They were instructed to report at an adjourned meeting, to be held at the Council Chamber on Friday evening, at which time the subscribers are to elect a committee who shall receive and disburse the money In case the work shall not cost the amount of money subscribed it is provided that the surplus shall be returned to the subscribers according as they subscribed We trust that every citizen will be prepared to give liberally to aid in this much needed improvement—it must be done at once and no property holder will stand back if he studies his own interests The meeting adjourned after quite an animated discussion when the subscription was started on the spot with the following results

Allen & Lewis	$500 00
H W Corbett	[illegible]
Portland Gas Company	300 00
[illegible] Wilcox	[illegible]
A P Ankeny	[illegible]
Savier & [illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible] & Flanders	[illegible]
Richards & McCraken	[illegible]
Henry Failing	200 00
B F Smith	[illegible]
	$2 600 [illegible]

The very liberal subscriptions as above show that there is a determination to have these obstructions removed We hope before to morrow night the sum subscribed will reach at least $10,000 00, and prove effectually that grass shall not grow in our streets if gold will keep it down

CONFIDENCE IN GOVERNMENT FINANCES —We last week heard of a well to-do resident of Multnomah county, who is anxious to dispose of his real estate for coin converting it into legal tender notes then into U S Government bonds This speaks well for the confidence of that man at least who is willing to invest so deep in the finances of the country Everybody must see the folly of hoarding the government currency Although "greenbacks" are cheap they are nothing but treasury notes without interest, and as Secretary Fessenden is wanting to give the holder the same security, with the addition of interest such means now in the pockets of the people will be converted into a fertile investment and a safe one—safe because it is an investment in the national existence itself and that which gives security to all property

A "LEGAL TENDER"—Some of our merchants have kept what is termed a "Black List," for the enrollment of the names of debtors who take advantage of the times to meet their obligations with "greenbacks," making an enormous discount on their balances This method however does not seem to deter some from making use of the "legal tender" system Yesterday an account of $2 00 was squared in currency by a creditor of one of our best mercantile firms Such prompt action, in payment of just and honest dues should be commended to his satanic majesty It infringes upon the good and healthy spirit of trade incites lack of confidence, destroys credit, and is attended throughout with perniciousness

BIRDS FOR THE SANITARY FAIR AND RAFFLE —Mr S. R. Douglas, the taxidermist of this city, has been busy for some time in preparing another fine case of birds for raffle, and a handsome case to be presented to the Ladies' Fair at Salem, on behalf of the Sanitary Commission We understand this is done by an arrangement with Mr Mayer, and the consent of the ladies, by which the case of birds will be presented to the Fair in lieu of the panther presented by Mr Mayer The present will be a magnificent and expensive affair, and the donation will be about equalized between the gentlemen named above

A MISAPPREHENSION —An old gentleman called upon us yesterday and made the startling revelation that a regularly organized band of "secessionists" were encamped down the river a short distance and were making active preparations to resist the draft The intelligence was calculated to excite us but after due deliberation we concluded the men were loyal, to the core that there was no need of fears of a draft The band of secessionists proved to be Company A, O V M, Capt Powell, and some one had been playing upon the credulity of the old man He left our sanctum wiser, and his heart much more at rest

A PLEASANT VISITOR —Rev W F Boynkin paid us a short visit yesterday, and we were very glad to meet him His two years and a half as Chaplain in the Army has given him much experience and the incidents he relates are full of good humor Mr B was a member of Gen Grant's staff, and has explicit confidence in the General to the ultimate results of his campaign The difficulties in the East are driving thousands to our more quiet regions and all reports of the immense emigration are sustained

THE THEATRE —Uninterrupted success rewards the efforts of the minstrel troupe now performing at the Willamette Theatre, and they are thoroughly establishing themselves in the affections of the people of Portland A lively and varied programme good singing, charming dancing in which Little Bobby who is developing wonderful talents shines to advantage, furnish ample reward for the investment of a dollar They play to night

LIGHTING STREET LAMPS ON HORSEBACK —The lighting of the street lamps in Portland is done in a novel manner sometimes, by a man on horseback who instead of carrying a light ladder, has his animal so trained that he need only to perform a sort of equestrian feat by standing on its back to do the work and pass on

"KEEP THE CONTRACT IN GOOD FAITH —About two years since parties entered into an agreement for their mutual benefit one of whom went to the mines and promised to share equally with the other, who had fitted him out Recently he returned to this city and having met with abundant success, hunted up his partner and divided the spoils

THE STEAMER VANCOUVER —Captain Turnbull's new steamer for the Vancouver trade is getting along finely and will be puffing around in the river before many weeks more The boiler cylinders pumps shaft etc, are all aboard now The planking will be all down to night and as soon as the caulking is finished the steamer will be launched

RECORDER'S COURT —The Recorder's Court has disposed of the following cases since Monday Thomas Mountain arraigned for violent and disorderly conduct, fined $15 and costs, paid Richard Doyle, same $20 and costs paid Michael Smith and Isaac Smith, twin brothers in drunkenness received one day each J. L. Tribit paid $5 and cost for riding on the side walk

TO CORRESPONDENTS —A rule long established by the Press of this country, of paying no attention to anonymous communications is still in force in this office No notice will be taken of letters unless accompanied by the name of the author

PICTORIALS ETC —We are again indebted to Mr McCormick of the Franklin Book Store for numerous magazines papers pictorials, etc We hope his liberality will meet with that patronage so well deserved

THE CASCADES —The new steamer was brought down to the lower end of Couch's wharf yesterday for the purpose of discharging the lumber brought for the finishing of her joiner work

COUNTY MATTERS —County Court adjourned at noon yesterday sine die The Board of County Commissioners will meet at the Court House to day at 10 o clock a m

FOGGY —For several nights past our region has been favored more or less with fog and dense moisture Last night at 12 o clock it rained quite hard

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires

REDINGTON & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS While it is highly palatable as a beverage it is unequaled as an invigorator In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions and cheer the spirits Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry wet and cold be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health —Sold by Druggists and dealers generally jy26daw

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause For such, Dr Osgood s India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms

The Indian Atrocities on the Plains

H W Nat bett has furnished the Salt Lake Telegraph of August 24th with the following account of the sights and scenes encountered on the overland route from about 100 miles west of Atchison to Julesburg

The difficulties now existing on the overland route, involving the continuance of our mail facilities, the transit of our immense supply of merchandise, and the safety of our immigration, with all the thirst for news, increased by a general knowledge of the character of the enemy give to sober fact the thrilling interest of romance The present attitude of the Indian tribe has been for some time anticipated. The stringent measures adopted since the terrible massacre of Minnesota appear to have driven one section of the Sioux nation to Little Blue, which furnishes a series of road posts very favorable for attack, running some sixty miles along the direct line of overland travel From indications it might be presumed that the tribe of red men mentioned were anxious first for clothing as in every case of murder they have stripped the victim, and where ranches have been attacked, everything in the way of cloth has been removed, even to the emptying of feather beds for the value of the cover, where trains have been attacked flour was emptied for the value of the sack, and not a vestige of the wagon covers have anywhere been remaining The first depredations east of Fort Kearney would appear to have been the attack upon a small train of six wagons, in a small hollow west of Lone Tree Station. From appearance a general stampede had been effected—one wagon being full a quarter of a mile from the point of attack, another had been run forward and returned the balance being scattered, but as to the particulars, none can give the story—every man having been killed with one exception—he lingering alone in his agony and begging for water from one or two parties passing till the following day, when he died Thence the Indians followed the Blue, and, within sight of Pawnee Ranch, attacked a single man, killing and scalping him, when they retreated again to the bush till they made a point east of Station Little Blue, where a family resided, there they killed or captured the whole number The parties here attacked appear to have divided and run east and west, but in the race for life were brought to with the rushing arrow, then scalped and left—one of them, a woman being otherwise outrageously mutilated The ranch was completely sacked The Indians next moved to Oak Grove, where, after exhibiting every mark of peace and good will—shaking hands all round, etc —quick as a flash the arrows were leveled at two who died instantly, another also being wounded The opportune arrival of a small train prevented further depredations, but, crossing the creek, another man was attacked, his arms stolen and he left for dead He finally crawled to the ranch On the arrival of the mail, soon after the above circumstance transpired, the wish was very urgent that he should lay over, as at daylight the attack might probably be renewed, which was agreed on, and, as Dr. Hickman, of Central City, was one of the passengers, the patients had their wounds promptly dressed. Whether they would recover, the doctor considered rather doubtful. Three murders more completed the victims from this point east—in each case the parties being alone and not armed

The news of these barbarities ran like lightning along the route, and a more thoroughly panic-stricken people probably never was seen Moving families, moving stock and household effects was the order of the time, growing crops and the labor of years being in some cases unsparingly abandoned. On the arrival of the mail at Pawnee Ranch it was detained, and while there two small mule trains arrived. This place was fortified in anticipation of an attack, while mounted parties went east and west to bring up the families left, till some forty or fifty men were at that point, besides women and children. Having decided that the western mail should move, we had run only about four miles when a messenger was dispatched to have it return to Pawnee, as Liberty Farm was on fire, and the Indians in force in front. In the meantime, they were also in the rear and between the coach and ranch, which decided our course, and our best speed was put to the test in an obliging run of forty five miles, without change of horses or feed, to the next available station. Here, at Hook's, an attack had been made on the stock a day or two previously, and in the pursuit one man was killed. Those who returned say that three white men were with the Indians on that raid Seeking to combine safety with progress, we ran to Fort Kearney, where the same manifestations of panic were everywhere seen. The authorities there were detaining all trains passing to assist in protecting the fort—some twenty men being the sole force left, and they on the sick list. A forced march had been made by a small force of hundred day men from Omaha, on whose arrival at Kearney they were distributed—one party being sent to the 'Blue' to cut the stockade with but fifteen rounds of ammunition. It was believed that they had all been killed. A party mainly composed of citizens was raised in Kearney to search for them, but their success and personal security were equally problematical, as when they started none of them could load the weapons furnished them.

Simultaneously a concerted attack was made above Fort Kearney. One train was so utterly destroyed that but a few pieces of iron, two or three blackened spots and a row of eleven graves were all that remained to tell of the terrible struggle Two women and one child were missing from this train, and one woman, man and child from the ranch massacre mentioned above Whether they were killed at some distance from the point of attack, or yet living and passing through a thousand deaths in captivity, the future alone can determine. Several other small parties and solitary individuals were murdered, numbering, so far as known, about thirty six Whether this is the end or only the beginning thereof none can tell What policy may be pursued here or there, would only amount to speculation. That there is a concert of action among the different tribes is abundantly evident. Lack of horses and clothing appear to be the first incentives of hostility. Whether this is only preparatory, whether they will for any length of time desist, is not apparent. The two trains attacked were from Denver. No trains with cattle had been molested, and large parties appeared to get along in safety, particularly if fearless and well armed

GOOD AND BETTER.—Exquisitely beautiful are the following lines by Gail Hamilton

Good to be one of the angel choir,
With never a shadow of shame and sin
No bitter remembrance of earthly guilt
To mar the untroubled peace within

Better to be a human soul,
Won by the love of Christ to heaven,
Casting the crown and striking the harp,
And singing the song of the much forgiven

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous so well authenticated and of such peculiar character that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill The facts are tangible the witnesses accessible and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup" do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN, and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES M D, IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J. R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth U S Mint, Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1856, page 70")

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

C C MOORE, 254 Broadway, N Y.
etc. etc etc etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix Rum

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c, deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless

NOTICE —Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. The Irish Bull—Sir Boyle Roche's Blunders.—Many of Sir Boyle Roche's blunders are happily preserved.

"Sir, I would give up half—nay, the whole of the constitution, to preserve the remainder." This, however, was parliamentary.

Hearing that Admiral Howe was in quest of the French, he remarked, somewhat pleasantly, that the Admiral would "sweep the French fleet off the face of the earth."

By-and-by came dangerous times of disaffection, and honest men's lives were insecure. Sir Boyle writes from the country to a friend in the capital this discouraging view of his position: "You may judge," he says, "of our state, when I tell you that I write this with a sword in one hand and a pistol in the other."

On another occasion, when the famous letters to the Public Advertiser were attracting universal attention, Sir Boyle was heard to complain bitterly of the attacks of a certain anonymous writer called Junius."

It was Sir Roche who recounted marvelous performance in gymnastics, when, in a tumult of loyalty, he "stood prostrate at the feet of his sovereign."

He it was denounced in withering language the apostate politician who "turned his back upon himself."

He it was who introduced to public notice the ingenious yet partially confused metaphor of the rat. "Sir," he said, addressing the Speaker of the Irish House, "I smell a rat, I see him floating in the air; but mark me, I shall yet nip him in the bud."

There was his famous speech which confounded generations. "I don't see, Mr. Speaker, why we should put ourselves out of the way to serve posterity. What has posterity done for us? He was a little disconcerted by the burst of laughter that followed, and proceeded to explain his meaning: "By posterity, sir, I do not mean our ancestors, but those who are to come immediately after them."

His invitation to the gentleman on his travels was hospitable and well-meant—but equivocal. "I hope, my lord, if ever you come within a mile of my house, you'll stay there all night."

It was Sir Boyle who stood for the proper dimensions of the wine bottle, and proposed to Parliament that it should be made compulsory that "every quart bottle should contain a gallon."

Very pleasant, and yet perfectly intelligible, was his meaning—though it unhappily took the fatal bovine shape—in his rebuke to the shoemaker when getting shoes for his gouty limbs: "I told you to make one larger than the other, and instead of that you have one smaller than the other—the very opposite!"—All the Year Round.

Mr. Webster and his Bills.—Our readers may be aware that Daniel Webster was not so careful in his pecuniary matters as some men; and this fault was at some times taken advantage of. At one time a poor man sawed a pile of wood for him, and, having presented his bill, it was promptly paid by Mr. Webster. The laborer took sick during the winter, and a neighbor advised him to call upon Mr. Webster for the payment of his bill. "But he has paid me," said the man. "No matter," replied his dishonest adviser; "call again with it. He don't know, and don't mind what he pays. It is a very common thing for him to pay much larger bills over twice." The man got well, and carried him his account the second time. Mr. Webster looked at it, looked at the man—remembered him; but paid the bill without demurring. The fellow got "short" some three or four months afterwards, and bethought him of the generosity and loose manner of Mr. Webster in his money matters, and a third time he called and presented the bill for sawing the wood. Mr. Webster took the account, which he immediately recognized, and scanning the wood-sawyer a moment, he said: "How do you keep your books, sir?" I keep no books," said the man, abashed. "I think you do, sir," continued Mr. Webster, with marked emphasis; "and you excel those who are satisfied with the double-entry system. You keep your books upon a triple-enty plan, I observe." Tearing up the account, Mr. Webster added: "Go, sir, and be honest hereafter. I have no objections to paying these little bills twice; but I cannot pay them three times. You may retire." The man left the room, feeling as though he was suffocating for want of air. He had learned a lesson that lasted through life.

Fun in Church.—The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal thus shows how "genuine fun at times gets into the church:"

In one of our meetings in which petitions from all sorts of persons are read for all sorts of things, one was read "for a young woman who had lost her first love." In the meeting was a person who frequently took part, whose habit it was to add er after some words, such as "O, Lord—er, hear our pray—er, come and bless us—er." Being a believer in falling from grace, he had an eye to the welfare of the young woman who had lost her first love; he arose to pray for her, which he did in this manner: "O, Lord, hear the prayer-er of this young woman-er, who has lost her first love-er." In each repetition of the word he called it lover, and so emphasised the word "first" that the case seemed particularly hard, fr the fact that it was her "first lover" she lost. Had it been the second one, or any other, the affliction would not have seemed so great; and as the ardent prayer went forth that the lost lover might be restored, grave faces relaxed, and countenances, unused to smile in the house of the Lord could not resist the temptation. The idea of a stray lover being the theme of prayer, was comical indeed.

There is this difference between hatred and pity: pity is a thing often avowed, seldom felt; hatred a thing often felt, seldom avowed.

[illegible]

[illegible] San Francisco [illegible]

[illegible] and that himself and a brother were induced [illegible] in the war against the old Government through the influence of leading men in the section, but that another brother joined the Union army under Gen. Curtis, and that all three of them fought at the battle of Pea Ridge, on opposing sides, and that when he witnessed neighbor shooting down neighbor and brother slaughtering brother in that terrible contest, it was enough to cure him, and that he immediately after escaped from the rebel army, and had ever since been stopping among the Rocky Mountains, picking up a precarious subsistence as best he could. This man evinced a longing, yearning wish to go back to his old home, but said he supposed Abe Lincoln's men would make it too hot for him if he did so. I happened to have in my pocket a Salt Lake paper which contained the President's Message with the proclamation of an offer of pardon to all who would return to their allegiance and take the prescribed oath. This was read aloud to a number standing by, and most of them expressed their delight that a way was opened by which those once offending, and becoming repentant, could be restored to citizenship. Along the route in Colorado and Nebraska I heard a few expressions of disloyalty from Northern born Copperhead Democrats, but in Kansas or Missouri I have yet to bear witness to the most remote expression of disloyalty from any person whomsoever. I have been here now three days, and mingled with the crowds in public rooms of hotels, and find that the prevailing sentiment is that of regret that Missouri ever became involved in the meshes of secession. There is considerable talk about filling up the quota of troops under the new call of the President, but no one complains. It is agreed on all sides that the rebellion must be put down, whatever the cost. Slaveholders are bringing in their able bodied negroes for enlistment, as this will save themselves from the draft, and really is their only chance to get any compensation for this species of chattle property. Set Missouri down, hereafter, as one of the most radical of the anti-slavery States. She has received her babtism in freedom from the fiery crucible of civil war.

Josh Billings Insures his Life.—The Poukeepsian has the following:

I kum to the conclusion lately, that life waz so onsartin, that the only wa fer me 2 stand a fair chance with other fokes waz 2 git my life insured, and so i called on the Agent of the Garden Angel Life Insurance Co., and answered the following questions, which waz put 2 me, over the top uv a pare uv gold specks, by a slik little fat old feller, with a round gray hed, and az pretty a little belly on him az any man ever owned:

1.—Air yu mail or femail? if so, stait how long yu hav been so.

2.—Air yu subjec 2 fits, and if so, du yu hav more than one at a time?

3.—What iz your precise fiteing wate?

4.—Did yu ever hav enny ancestors, and if so, how much?

5.—What iz yoor legal opinyon uv the constitushionality uv the 10 commandments?

6.—Du yu ever hav any nite mares?

7.—Air yu married and single, or air yu a Bachelor?

8.—Du yu beleave in a future stait? if yu du, stait it.

9.—What air yoor private sentiments about a rush uv rats 2 the head; can it be did successfully?

10.—Hav yu ever committed suiside, and if so, how did it seem 2 effect yu?

After answering the above questions, like a man in the confirmatif, the slik little fat old feller with gold specks on, sed i waz insured for life, and probably wood remain so for a term uv oars. I thanked him, and smiled one uv my most pensive smiles.

Anecdote of Rabelais.—Rabelais, being in very needy circumstances, and at the same time very anxious to visit Paris, filled several papers with brickdust, and labeled them, "Poison for monsieur," "for the dauphin," "for the king." These he carefully placed in his escritoire, knowing that his landlord was of the Paul Pry order, and fond of investigating his correspondence in private. The bait took; a special messenger arrived in consequence of the intelligence which had been furnished at court, and at the king's expense the wit traveled to his paradise, with proper accommodation found him on the road. Fortunately for him he was recognized, and his powder proved harmless, or had he been a droll of less repute, he might have expiated his fun on the gallows.

The Spirit of Converted Rebels.—Some time last year, whilst Col. Campbell was Provost Marshal of Nashville, a rebel was carried before him, on some complaint, and got off by "taking the oath." After which the following colloquy occurred:

"I'm a loyal citizen, now; am I not, Colonel?" asked the rebel.

"Of course," replied the Colonel.

"I can talk now, and express my opinion, can't I?"

"Of course."

"Well, Colonel, didn't the rebels give us hell at Shiloh?"

The Old Adam was still in him, and he couldn't disguise it.—Nashville Union.

Liberty to be Damned.—Frederick II, of Prussia, received a petition from one of his districts praying that a certain clergyman be suspended from preaching, because he held that the punishment of the wicked would come to an end. The King took his pen and wrote the following: "I have considered the above petition, and do hereby give my royal permission to all my loyal subjects to be damned to all eternity if they choose it. But I do positively forbid their quarrelling with their neighbors who are not willing to keep their company so long."

A New Question.—"Ma," said a little girl to her mother, "do men want to get married as much as the women?"

"Pshaw! what are you talking about?"

"Why, ma, the women who come here are always talking about getting married—the men don't do so."

☞ As it is the easiest thing in the world to be mistaken; mankind should never form an adverse opinion of a person without such proof as places conviction beyond all doubt or question. Many an innocent bosom bleeds through the inhumanity of hasty conclusions.

A Western editor in an obituary on a young lady, who had recently died, closed by saying: "She had an amiable temper, and was uncommonly fond of ice cream and other delicacies."

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCAREOUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the	Muscular System,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms, if allowed to go, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.
